COMMENTS AND INSTRUCTIONS FORM 2.1 SPOUSE'S WAIVER OF PRE-RETIREMENT SURVIVOR BENEFIT UNDER A PENSION PLAN

This waiver must be completed by the spouse of a member or former member ("member")of a registered pension plan that is subject to the provisions of The Pension Benefits Act, 1992 (the "Act"), where the spouse wishes to waive entitlement to the pre-retirement survivor benefit provided under section 33 of the Act.

The pre-retirement survivor benefit provided under the Act ensures that, on the death of a member or former member, the surviving spouse will receive a survivor benefit. If the member or former member dies before meeting the early retirement rule provided under the pension plan, the value of the survivor benefit must be equal to the commuted value of the pension of the deceased individual. If the member or former member dies after meeting the early retirement rule provided under the pension plan, the value of the survivor benefit must be at least equal to the post-retirement benefit provided under Section 34 of the Act.

The pre-retirement survivor benefit may be paid to the surviving spouse as a lump sum payment or in the form of an immediate or deferred pension. The surviving spouse may also elect to transfer the survivor benefit in accordance with the portability options under Section 32(2) of the Act.

Under the Act, "spouse" means:

- (a) a person who is married to a member or former member; or
- (b) if a member or former member is not married, a person with whom the member or former member is cohabiting as spouses at the relevant time and who has been cohabiting continuously with the member or former member as his or her spouse for at least one year prior to the relevant time.

The spouse may waive entitlement to the pre-retirement survivor benefit by completing and signing this waiver prior to the date of the death of the member or former member. The waiver must be:

- · completed in its entirety;
- signed outside of the immediate presence of the member or former member;
- signed by the spouse and witnessed prior to the date of the death of the member or former member;
- filed with the administrator of the pension plan.

The waiver may be revoked at any time prior to the date of the death of the member or former member by providing notice in writing to the administrator of the pension plan.

If at the date of death of a member or former member a valid waiver has been filed with the administrator of a pension plan the pre-retirement survivor benefit will be paid to:

- a designated beneficiary; or
- the estate of the member or former member, where there is no valid beneficiary.

We strongly urge the spouse to seek independent legal advice before signing this waiver.
